Utqiagvik, AK. 99723

Dear Mrs. Toovak:

I am writing to you on behalf of the eleven (11) Whaling Villages and Commissioners of the Alaska Eskimo Whaling Commission (AEWC). The AEWC is a not-for-profit corporation and a federally recognized Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) charitable and educational organization IRS No. 92-0081760.

As you are aware, the Inupiat and Siberian Yupik Eskimos living in these coastal villages of the Arctic Ocean, Beaufort and Chukchi Seas, have been hunting the bowhead whale for thousands of years. The AEWC was formed in 1977 with a mission of protecting the bowhead whale and its habitat, as well as the aboriginal subsistence traditional hunting rights of Alaska's indigenous people. The whaling communities along the Arctic Coast of Alaska rely on the AEWC to protect the bowhead whale and successfully manage the bowhead whale subsistence hunt. In a continued effort to protect and preserve the subsistence way of life for these whaling communities, AEWC is hosting its 2024 Whaling Captains' Convention and Open Water Season Conflict Avoidance Agreement (CAA) Meeting from January 29-February 2, 2024 in Utqiagvik, Alaska.

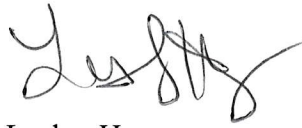

In preparation for the financial burden of this event, AEWC is requesting donations to defray the tremendous cost of the convention. This is an event AEWC cannot accomplish without financial support from partners throughout Alaska.

In addition to a possible cash donation, AEWC kindly requests any in-kind donations for use as door prizes, or welcomes an opportunity to have you sponsor breakfasts or lunches during the convention. Your support will help ensure the vital cultural traditions of our communities are continued for generations. We hope your company will consider donating to the 2024 Annual Meeting of AEWC.
